Drafting of Aliens Favored by Senate Committee

RESOLUTION IS EXPECTED TO BE ADOPTED BY UPPER HOUSE

Chamberlain Measure Exempts Chinese, Japanese; Million Men Affected

WASHINGTON, July 27.—The senate Military Affairs committee today voted unanimously to recommend to senate Monday for immediate passage of the Chamberlain resolution permitting the drafting of aliens into the new National army.

The senate is expected to adopt the resolution.

One million men will be affected. Aliens who cannot become citizens of America, including Chinese and Japanese, are exempted by the resolution, which would also exempt citizens of enemy countries, their allies and aliens of countries having anti-draft treaties with the United States.

If the Chamberlain resolution is sidetracked, a similar proposal by Senator McCumber may be brought up.

CAL. INDUSTRIES RALLY TO AID OF GOVERNMENT

Ship Building and Airplane Manufacturing Concerns File Articles

SACRAMENTO, July 27.—Indications that the industrial interests of California are rallying to the support of the government in the present crisis by devoting their energies to manufacture of aircraft and the building of ships is given in articles of incorporation filed with the secretary of state.

Within a few weeks seven new shipbuilding corporations and six companies to manufacture aeroplanes have filed incorporation papers. The number of ship building firms greatly exceeds those usually incorporated in a year's time.

The Craig Ship Building Company, Denica Ship Building Company, Hollywood Ship Yards, Inc., Fulton Ship Building Company, Pacific Coast Construction Company, San Francisco Ship Building Company and Pacific Coast Ship Building Company, have all organized.

This is taken to mean California is on the eve of the greatest ship building era in her history.

California may also become a center of aeroplane construction, as these six new aircraft manufacturing concerns have filed articles of incorporation: Longhead Aircraft Manufacturing Company, Riverside Aircraft Company, California Aviation Company, American Aircraft Corporation, California Aircraft Corporation and California Aeroplane Company.

TEACH CHILDREN TRUE PATRIOTISM, IS URGED

SAN FRANCISCO, July 27.—Teach the children true patriotism, particularly at this time, is the advice of the Very Rev. Edward A. Pace, Ph.D. D.D., of Washington, who is in San Francisco lecturing before the teacher's institute.

True patriotism, he said, he meant for the most part obedience to authority, and the best way to teach it is to point to nature as an example. In nature there is no such thing as a rebellion and nature never rises against the laws which govern it.

SIDELIGHTS

HERE'S ONE ON SAM STEIN
Sam Stein, Santa Ana's round stationer, tells this one. It is on him, so its authenticity is beyond question.

The other day he was bowling along a certain thoroughfare in that dear Sawtelle. The speedometer on the trusty Stein Ford registered twenty-five miles an hour, no more. Suddenly, a rauous voice:

"Drive up to the curb!"

"What?" queried the startled Stein.

"DRIVE UP TO THE CURB!"

Stein saw it was a minion of the law. And Stein believes not in monkeying with an aforesaid minion. So he halted his chariot by the curb.

"What's the matter?"

"You're under arrest for speeding."

"Speeding? Why, I was only going twenty-five miles an hour."

"Makes no difference. You appear in court a week from tomorrow. What's your name?"

It appears that there is a certain district in Sawtelle where it is contrary to law to drive faster than ten miles an hour. Signs conveying this information are posted. Stein failed to see one of the signs, however, which accounts for his having been halted by the speed cop.

Stein, always obliging, took the officer's book and carefully inscribed "Sam Stein, Santa Ana," thereon.

The minion took one look at the entry in the book and looed loose a bellow of delight:

"Santa Ana? Oh, joy!"

Stein couldn't "see" a week from tomorrow" so he said:

"Can't we settle this thing now?"

So the speed officer proceeded to the justice of the peace with his captive.

The justice was asleep. After considerable effort he was aroused, the officer announcing briefly:

"Twenty-five miles an hour."

The justice remained inside of his sanctum, the negotiations being carried on through a screened window.

On learning the name of the city whence came Stein the justice's eyes lighted.

"Santa Ana, hey? That's where Justice Cox hangs out, isn't it? Twenty-five miles an hour, hey? That'll cost you five dollars."

Just like that; pleading on Stein's part being without avail. "Is that final?" asked Stein.

"It is," said the justice, raising up the screen a couple of inches, preparatory to receiving through the aperture the five dollars, which was forthcoming from the flabbergasted Stein.

What gets Stein's "goat," he says, is the fact that the speed cop told him that had he been traveling but a fraction under twenty-five miles an hour in the ten-mile-an-hour district he would have been merely admonished, and not taken before the justice.

DR. C. D. BALL NAMED BY WILSON ON CALIF. DRAFT APPEAL BOARD

Local Physician to Serve On District Division No. 1 In State

WASHINGTON, July 27.—President Wilson this afternoon named the District or Appeal Exemption Boards for California. They are: Southern District Division 1—Dr. Charles D. Ball, Seth R. Brown, Ed. Fletcher, W. H. Holabird, Joseph Scott.

Division Two—S. C. Evans, Paul Gregg, Witten W. Harris, Dr. Gayle P. Mosby, George Roeding.

BOMB USED IN HAY BURNING PLOTS FOUND

MODESTO, Cal., July 27.—A bomb, supposedly of German make, contained in a small bottle, was found by a farmer near this city in his haystack yesterday and upon analysis was found to be of dangerous character. The bomb was encased in a bottle about the size of a cologne bottle, with glass cap. The inside was lined with stiff cloth which had been treated with phosphorus. There was a quantity of sulphur in the bottle and in the center a vial filled with water, in which a small tablet of phosphorus floated. If left exposed for an hour the vial would burst and the bomb shoot into flames.

These bombs, it is believed, are responsible for recent fires in this vicinity which destroyed thousands of tons of hay and many acres of growing

WOMAN ADMITS LURING 2 MEN TO DEATH TRAP FOR GOLD

Stockton Confession Reveals Circumstances In Dual Slaying and Robbery

STOCKTON, July 27.—Mrs. Trinity Dandia, participant in the murder of James Hanlon, a jitney driver, confessed to the sheriff here this morning that she and Joe Martinez, her paramour, lured J. A. Austin, another jitney driver, out to a lonely spot and that Martinez murdered and robbed him. The crime was almost identical with that committed against Hanlon.

STOCKTON, July 27.—District Attorney Foltz announces that Mrs. Trinity Dandia will be formally charged today with the murder of James A. Hanlon, the Stockton jitney driver who was found murdered and robbed in a lonely spot in one of the additions of the city last April.

Joe Martinez, paramour of the Dandia woman, who, according to her statements, fired the shots from the rear seat that killed Hanlon as he sat at the wheel beside her on the front seat, is dead. He died at the county hospital from pneumonia after he had been shot in the leg by an officer who detected him in the act of robbing a box car.

The justice was asleep. After considerable effort he was aroused, the officer announcing briefly:

"Twenty-five miles an hour."

The justice remained inside of his sanctum, the negotiations being carried on through a screened window.

On learning the name of the city whence came Stein the justice's eyes lighted.

APPLICANTS FOR WAR CAMP TO BE EXAMINED

Those Orange county men called for examination as to their fitness for entry in the second officers' camp at the Presidio will receive post cards some time tomorrow, notifying them as to when and where to appear for examination, according to A. S. Ralph.

Ralph believes that the examinations will be held Sunday morning, beginning at 10 o'clock, though until the cards, which were mailed from Los Angeles this afternoon, arrive, this point will be in doubt.

The examining officer will be Major Samuel F. Bottoms, Coast Artillery. He will be accompanied by an examining physician.

Twenty-four men in Orange county made applications to Ralph for the second officers' camp.

HAVOC IS SPREAD BY BIG CHILEAN TBLOR

BUENOS AIRES, July 27.—An earthquake of great intensity, believed to have caused great damage in Chile, was reported from Santiago in dispatches received today by La Nacion. Details were meager but it was known the tremors had been felt in Santiago, Cordoba, San Luis, Mendoza, Rosario and Tucuman. Many walls were shaken down and the populace of several cities fled from their homes.

Considerable property damage was reported, but no details were given. The Santiago dispatch said great alarm was felt there. The shocks were ascribed as the strongest in years. They started about 10:45 last night. In Buenos Aires slight tremors were noticeable.

News was awaited from Valparaiso, which was reported in early dispatches as being the heaviest sufferer.

ROAR OF GIANT GUNS HERALS HUGE BATTLE IN BELGIUM

Drum Fire Concussion Heard In London Points to Nearness of Nieuport Grapple

LONDON, July 27.—A great battle may be impending today on the sea sector of the western front.

Parts of London today reported having felt the concussion of drum fire somewhere in the east that at times seemed to approach the intensity of that which preceded Field Marshal Haig's drive against Messines.

Front dispatches of the last few days have indicated a fear on the part of the Germans that the British might be preparing an offensive.

The Nieuport sector, near the Belgian coast, was reported deluged with a hail of shells of all calibres from the German guns. To these the British made a steady, methodical return.

5 TERRIFIC TEUTON BLOWS IN CHAMPAGNE CRUMBLE

PARIS, July 27.—Five violent German attacks southwest of Moronvilliers (Champagne front), following an intense bombardment were without gain to the enemy, today's official statement asserted.

1,450 FRENCH CAPTURED ON CHEMIN DES DAMES

BERLIN, July 27.—French prisoners of the German army along the Chemin des Dames have increased to more than 1,450, with great quantities of supplies captured as the result of the latest operations of the Crown Prince, today's statement said.

ALLY ARMIES TO QUIT 2 GREEK PRINCIPES

PARIS, July 27.—Withdrawal of allied forces "as soon as possible from Greece, ending the military occupancy of the Greek provinces of Thessaly and Epirus" today was resolved upon by the allied war conference.

ALLIES DETERMINED TO CRUSH AUTOCRACY

LONDON, July 27.—The allied powers are firmly knit together in the conviction that only one end to the war is possible—and that is to crush German's autocracy—if world democracy is to be preserved.

Assembling at the twenty-four hour developments in the allied capitals today, this fact became firmly apparent as that which animates every one of Germany's enemies.

In London a small group of pacifists' efforts to have the house of commons endorse some of the principles of the German reichstag center-socialist coalition party's recent peace resolution, was spurned by an overwhelming vote.

Paris dispatches reported the conference of allied statesmen and war chiefs had developed complete unity of understanding that the war must go on to democracy's triumph, despite all sacrifices.

Even Petrograd, where the provincial government faces a Herculean task in reforming Russia's spy infected regiments, reported full and stern determination to wage the war against German domination.

What gave greatest satisfaction here, however, was news from Washington indicating legislators there were already slowly awakening to the supreme importance of putting forth every effort of the nation to stamp out the world menace to human freedom.

COUNTESS CZACKY NOW PLAIN 'MRS. WHITE'

CHICAGO, July 27.—The Countess Kalman Czacky, well known in Chicago, New York and San Francisco, today was plain "Mrs. White." She was married yesterday to Charles E. White, wealthy Board of Trade broker.

Mrs. White, formerly Miss Maud Howard, was first married about ten years ago to Montgomery Bryan, San Francisco publisher. She inherited the bulk of his fortune. In 1911 she married R. D. Inman, lumberman, at Portland, Ore., and was divorced a month later. About five years ago she married Count Czacky, a cousin of Count Szczecini, who married Gladys Vanderbilt. They were later divorced. White's first wife died two years ago.

L. A. RECORD EDITOR CITED FOR CONTEMPT

LOS ANGELES, July 27.—Dana Sleeth, editor of the Los Angeles Record, has been cited for contempt of court. Proceedings were filed today by the district attorney, based upon editorials written during the progress of the Claire Snively suit.

Return To Czarism Through Anarchy Is Feared By Kerensky

BY WILLIAM G. SHEPHERD
(United Press Staff Correspondent)

PETROGRAD, July 27.—The struggle of Premier Kerensky and the provisional government against the discordant elements in Russia has become a fight to prevent Russia's return to the old regime, with its rule of absolutism and oppression.

That Kerensky senses the peril of a counter-revolution, coming after military breakdown, was indicated today in two different speeches the premier has delivered since Tuesday.

Nicholas Lenin, anti-war agitator and suspected German spy was again at large today, following a pitched battle at Tornia (Finland) between government agents and anarchists.

Madame Kolontay, one of Lenin's most ardent supporters and also suspected of being in the pay of the German government, was arrested there with a dozen other agitators. The fight occurred at a country palace in the Finnish city, which the anarchists had seized and occupied.

NEW YORK, July 27.—German troops were unable to make a further breach in the 150-mile Russian line but north of Tarnopol their advances continue satisfactory. Official statements today indicate a hardening of the German lines. At some places severe shocks were administered to the German advances. The Rumanians continued their victorious forward sweep on the river Guchitzia. The Rumanians official statement details further fruitless German attacks, this time in the Champagne sector, with fighting of great violence.

PETROGRAD, July 27.—Russia restored the death penalty today and prepared a policy of wholesale executions to clear the army of cowards.

"Institution of capital punishment is necessary," declared Premier Kerensky. "The government faces the alternative of sacrificing the army to cowards and traitors. The provisional ministry will assume full responsibility for the step."

The rout of disloyal troops continued today. With hardly a blow struck in defense, the Cossack regiments which led from Tarnopol and Stanislaw have turned their backs on the enemy and are hurrying further from the front. The way to Czernowitz seemed open to the fast pursuing Teutonic armies. Much greater penetration of the Russian line in this section will gravely endanger the staunchly vigorous Russian and Rumanian troops south in the wooded Carpathians. There no cowards or traitors have appeared and the troops are fiercely pressing the Germans.

The central executive committee of workmen's and soldiers' delegates and the executive committee of peasants' delegates today issued a formal appeal to the nation for complete unity. It was addressed to the councils of workmen, soldiers and peasants all over Russia and to all committees of the army and navy and declared that the fruits of the revolution were gravely endangered by

LIKE 'SOCIAL' WHEN CHIC U.S. NURSES POUR TEA BACK OF WAR FRONT

Charming Scene In France Is Described By United Press Writer

BY WILLIAM PHILIP SIMMS
(United Press Staff Correspondent)
WITH THE BRITISH ARMIES IN THE FIELD, July 1 (By Mail)—It is a sight for sore eyes to see the Stars and Stripes floating in the war zone of France and under it pretty American girls moving between rows of hospital tents decorating the landscape with their smiles.

Today I had tea at No. 11 Base hospital. The old unit from Boston was giving a spread to the new girls just arrived. And as Chicago No. 12, from Cook County hospital was in charge of No. 18 General, only a half mile down the road, the girls from Chicago were there too. Also one British general—a Sir—and any number of colonels, majors, captains and lieutenants.

Outside, over a sea of tents, the sun was shining. Inside the tents American girls moved silently to and fro watching over the wounded, while medical officers wearing the American uniform went from bed to bed.

Sufferings Cured by Medicine Recommended by Sister-in-law.

Jamaica, N. Y.—"I suffered greatly with my head and with backache, was weak, dizzy, nervous, with hot flashes and felt very miserable, as I was irregular for two years. One day when I was feeling unusually bad my sister-in-law came in and said, 'I wish you would try Lydia E. Pinkham's Compound.' So I began taking it and I am now in good health and am cured. I took the Compound three times a day after meals, and on retiring at night, I always keep a bottle in the house."—Mrs. L. N. BURNHAM, 235 South St., Jamaica, N.Y.

1500 PRESIDIO MEN TO GET COMMISSIONS

SAN FRANCISCO, July 27—"About 1500, as nearly as I can figure it, will get in somewhere," was the statement of Col. F. W. Sladen today in discussing the number of student officers from the Presidio camp who would receive commissions. Rumors that less than half that number would be commissioned were quieted by Sladen's statement.

About 100 engineers who will be commissioned from the training quarters at Vancouver barracks and some 50 or 60 aviators training at Berkeley were not included in the estimate.

GERRARD BROS.

stood the marquise under which tea was being poured. Every nurse, off duty at the time, was on hand. Some stood back of the tea table. Others served at the punch bowl—a beautiful, claret-colored fruit punch, as harmless and as free from beguiling liquors as the spring water Moses smote from the rock. The rest made the guests welcome and brought them cakes and buttered bread and things. And smiled and laughed and talked real Chicago and Evansville and Boston talk, their blue uniforms and white headress adding to the general sunshine. Scraps of conversation mingled with the rattle of spoons in tea-cups.

"Cincinnati!" one pretty girl exclaimed as she smiled up at a British officer belted Sam Brown-wise. "Do you really know Cincinnati? Why I was born there! I went to Chicago to take up trained nursing at the Cook County."

Canadian From the States
"Sure I know Cincinnati," the officer smiled. "I'm a Canadian from the States. I was born in Georgia."

"Georgia!" the sister exclaimed. "What part?"

"Newman."

"Oh!" There was disappointment in her voice. "I was hoping it would be Augusta. I know a lot of folks down that-a-way."

"That-a-way! Oh you American girl."

"So you are from Evansville!" another officer was saying to another nurse. "I've been to Evansville."

"Honest!" said the girl. " Didn't you like it there? I think Evansville is the prettiest place in the world!"

"Have another glass of punch," suggested a pretty sister with a tray as she stood in front of a small group of American youngsters wearing the uniform of a Lieutenant.

"Don't care if I do," said the crowd in chorus. "Thanks."

"Then somebody said: 'Reminds me of a real old Alabama church Sociable, this does.'"

"I turned to see who the speaker could be. It was an army reserve surgeon, ranking as captain, from Selma.

Criticise Uniforms

Nearby two girls were talking. "Why don't our officers wear Sam brown belts like the British?" one of them wanted to know. "The English officers are ever so much more chic in their uniforms. Our men, with their standing collars on their tunics look like privates beside the British. Don't you think so?"

Three or four girls from the Chicago unit stood out front of one of the Harvard girls, in France since a year ago. They were eyeing her snowy, flowing head-dress enviously.

"Oh why can't we have coiffures like yours!" one of them moaned with mock tragedy in her voice. "Our little bits of white muslin with the tiny red crosses on them look so common beside yours. All the society ladies have adopted your kind. They are becoming to everybody."

"Just look at my uniform," a second girl exclaimed. "I just must send it to the cleaners to have that spot removed, and of course out here in the country there isn't any cleaner."

Gives Direction

"Yes there is," said the pretty girl addressed, "and it's just down the road. Go down that way (pointing) until you come to the bayonet practice, turn to the right and go on as far as the bombing school. Then you will see the sign right next to the bombing school's laboratory."

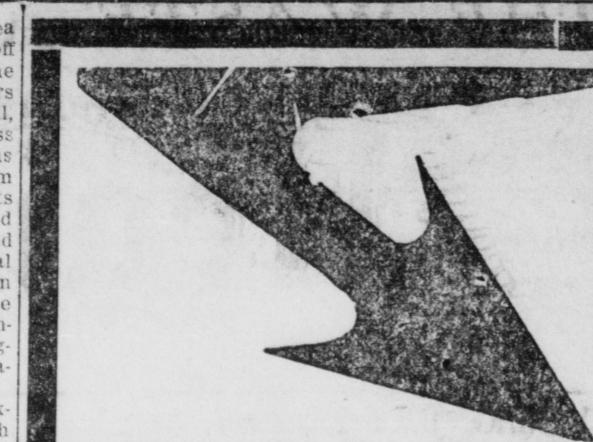

"Oh, thank you so much!" said the girl with the spot.

And so the American girls went on talking.

As I left one of the older nurses said gravely:

"This doesn't look very warlike, does it? And if the folks at home could see us now they would probably say we were not paying attention to our jobs. But tease like this don't happen every day. We have saved up for a long time in order to have these delicacies today. When tonight comes and tomorrow, and all the other nights and tomorrows, we will be caring for wounded men, fresh from the battle-fields. And it is hard work. Just as we have the phonograph play to keep the patients cheerful so do we try to take the sisters' minds off their work now and then."

Suddenly the nurse smiled and became gay again. "It's regular little sociable, isn't it," she said.

DOLLAR PER LOT IS IRRIGATION WATER COST WITH CITY

Water For Vacant Lots Supplied At the Regular Meter Rate

That it costs an average of $1 to irrigate a city lot with city water has been demonstrated by irrigation of about fifteen lots in the last week or two by co-operation of the city water department with lot owners, according to City Water Superintendent Reid.

By action of the city council recently, the water department was authorized to supply water to vacant lots where owners made request for the service. Half the regular meter rate is charged, or 50 cents per 1000 cubic feet.

Water is conveyed from a fire hydrant to a vacant lot through a fire hose, a stream of 25 inches being obtained. This is sufficient to irrigate the average lot in good shape. The city makes the connection, furnishes the hose and bridge protection for the hose where it crosses a street. The water is turned on by an employee of the city, and the user must shut it off when he is through. The water must also be turned off at 5 o'clock in the evening and in case of fire.

One Application at a Time

Only one application can be taken care of at a time because of a lack of sufficient hose to run more than one stream. The service is available to everyone wanting it, whose lots are within a block of fire hydrant.

Consumption of water by consumers of the city will soon be on the decline and it is the opinion of Water Superintendent Reid that water sufficient to irrigate 100 acres is available from the city system except in the summer season.

THE NEW WELL

A fine well has been developed on the Lincoln property and this will add quite an important supply to the city. The well is now down an even 500 feet with water rising within 53 feet of the surface. The clay at this depth indicates that an even stronger well can be developed within the next fifty feet and it is the intention to sink that much deeper before calling a halt in drilling.

GARDEN GROVE

AULD LANG SYNE CLUB GATHERS AT RIVERA

GARDEN GROVE, July 27.—Mrs. William Newsom was hostess to the Auld Lang Syne Club at its monthly meeting Saturday at her home at Rivera. The time passed most pleasantly with guests from Garden Grove, Irvine, Santa Ana and Bakersfield. The color scheme was red, white and blue. Dinner was served under an immense walnut tree. The next meeting will be the last Thursday in September at the home of Mrs. Edward Chaffee, Mrs. Roy Oldfield, hostess. Those who attended from here were Mrs. John Mitchell, Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Newsom, Mr. and Mrs. Willis Newsom, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Chaffee, Mrs. Roy Oldfield and Miss Bertha Robinson. Mrs. Heil Small of Bakersfield, former Grove teacher, was also present.

The meeting of the Ladies' Aid was postponed until Thursday of next week and will meet at the home of Mrs. Earl Butler.

Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Junkin had as Wednesday dinner guests Mr. and Mrs. F. D. Turner and daughter, Miss Marion of Stanton. The occasion was Mrs. Junkin's birthday.

Grove Personals

D. W. McDannald, representing Orange county at Los Angeles Chamber of Commerce, a position he has held for seven years, was in Garden Grove Wednesday collecting data for a 28-page book he is preparing on Orange County. He is a former resident of Garden Grove, having lived here for sixteen years. In 1897 he purchased forty acres of land east of what is now Garden Grove, for which he paid $1000, paying $200 cash and the balance on time. Comparing increased values in Orange County he later converted the forty acres into 800 acres of farm land in Merced County. He still owns twenty acres here. Mr. McDannald says three things brought Orange County into prominence and made it famous—chili peppers, the exceptionally high-grade of walnuts and the J. Vern McConnell model Black Minorca chicken ranch.

CONTINUE EDUCATIONS

The students of the land have amply demonstrated their patriotism. They have enlisted in large numbers from our colleges and universities and high schools for government service of all kinds. They have turned from the halls of learning to enter army and navy and to engage in practical farm work.

This zeal for service is highly commendable. It shows that these favored young men have not enjoyed the opportunities of college training in vain. They have acquired ideals for which they are willing to sacrifice all.

Opportunities in business life created by the demands of war are a temptation to young men who are too young to enlist or who perhaps by reason of slight physical defects cannot enlist. Wages look extremely attractive to the youth who has had little to spend while going to school or during vacation. Parents hard run by the high cost of living are prone to let their boy quit school, get a job and become self-supporting. These young men and their parents should consider the situation thoroughly before deciding in favor of present ease and opportunities as against the opportunities that will be open for the trained minds of the future.

Something of this phase of the problems that face the youth of the land today was dwelt upon in an address recently by Principal Hammond of our high school. He said that it is more important than ever before that as many young men as possible receive further educational training.

President King of Oberlin College has sent a letter to all Oberlin alumni calling their attention to the need for keeping the institutions of learning open. President Thwing of Western Reserve University has addressed a letter to high school principals concerning the attitude of boys under age in the high schools, of college men and especially of those in, or planning for, professional courses. He urges that the training of these boys and men go forward, that as many as possible finish their school education.

Other leaders, both civil and military, have been urging the same thing. During the war, if it drags out for many months or more than a year, and after the war, no matter how soon it ends, we will have the greatest need for thoroughly trained men. The aftermath of war is something for which we should begin to plan now. This is the time, and these young men are the material, for building up the army of capable, skillful and intelligent citizens the nation will need later on.

The kings of this era, in the old world, are finding their jobs more or less uncertain. They are learning that a king must be steady in his habits, not too much influenced by his wife, must not mismanage the works or try to run them contrary to the desires of the stockholders and board of directors. The day is past, in all save the German empire, where any man can dictate autocratically and absolutely to a people and retain his power unchallenged, and there are indications that even in Germany the voice of the people is not only being listened to but may soon be heeded.

Small Hopes
Nobody in this country will be particularly elated at reports that the kaiser has abdicated in favor of his son.

It used to be said of certain office holders that "few die and none resign." The Hohenzollerns beat this, for they do neither. Besides, were a son of the kaiser to reign, the whole royal business would be tarred with the same familiar stick.

As Henry Watterson so ably remarked early in the game, "Damn the Hohenzollerns!"

Our Favorite Enemy "Von" Count von Bernstorff has been mentioned as on the slate to succeed to the chancellorship.

His appointment would not be pleasing to this country, a fact that must be the only excuse for mentioning the

MOVING INCIDENT

New York Times

Every American heart must be touched by the fact that orphaned children reverently knelt in the Paris streets as the flag of our nation borne in the battalion of American troops passed them. The brief description of the incident in the newspapers must have brought tears to many American eyes. For its pathetic significance is irresistible. These children have had their own experience of the horrors of war. They have been taught to look forward to the coming of our troops as the beginning of its end.

That hope, so widely spread in the afflicted country Americans have always loved, and have so great reason to hold in esteem, that our aid will quickly give them relief, may not be altogether realized. We can only do our best. But that one illustration of the common French faith in the will and power of the United States to help France should inspire us to strengthen our efforts to make our weight felt as soon as possible. There is no misgiving in the hearts of the orphaned French children. The flag of the free republic now floating side by side with the tri-color symbolizes for them the near approach of peace with victory. It is a new flag to them. But it means in their simple minds what it means to every loyal American, the emblem of freedom and justice.

CANNING LESSONS

Tomatoes which are ripe enough for serving raw on the table are just right for canning.

Use only the firm, well-formed fruit, and scald for several minutes to loosen the skin. Dip into cold water for an instant, peel and remove cores with a narrow-bladed, sharp-pointed knife, being careful not to cut into the seed lobes more than necessary.

Pack carefully and firmly into hot jars and add a level teaspoonful of salt to each quart, and the whole sterilized for twenty to thirty minutes.

Tomatoes for drying should be prepared in the same way as for canning and then sliced cross-wise into $\frac{1}{2}$ -inch slices. These should be spread in layers on the drying trays and dried until leathery. Another way is to sprinkle slices with sugar and dry until the material resembles dried figs.

Dried Berries
Pick over fruits, removing all leaves stems and unsound berries, and wash by placing in a colander and pouring cold water through it. Remove surface moisture by pouring berries on a paper and then spread in thin layers on the drying trays. Cover trays with cheesecloth to exclude all insects and dust, and protect from dew and rain. Stir material occasionally so as to dry evenly and after drying condition for several days by pouring back and forth from one container to another. Store in tight cans, paste board boxes or bags bearing label of contents. The place of storage should be cool and dry and free from vermin and insects.

Bernstorff wasn't even a good head for the spy system he directed here.

Modern Weapons

General Pershing's army is to have in the beginning more than a quarter of a million each of picks and shovels. The pen has been estimated as mightier than the sword, but even the pen is out of the contest now.

Can't See It
For a long time I have been trying to see that the marriage of Col. Edward H. R. Green has any more public importance than the marriage of the butcher boy, and can't do it.

There is food in plenty, and a prospect that none of the regular three meals a day will have to be omitted from necessity.

It is a little disturbing to read, however, that American meat in London is sold at about one-third less at home.

Scarcity of meat is one thing, and boosting the price as though a scarcity existed quite another.

Eating

Herbert Hoover said recently "Eat plenty, wisely and without waste," apparently an extremely sensible notion, devoid of all hysteria.

While food waste is wrong and foolish in war or peace, the idea that the people of this country were in any danger of being reduced to half rations never has seemed to all of us to be based on a nice regard for the facts.

There is food in plenty, and a prospect that none of the regular three meals a day will have to be omitted from necessity.

Doubtless there is something wrong with powers of perception that fall so far below the journalistic standard.

If these thieves will resist arrest uniformly, and the police learn to shoot with tolerable accuracy, perhaps this form of crime will become less.

SOCIETY

PLEASANT WELCOME

Lieut. and Mrs. Swanner Honored at Function at Home
Dr. and Mrs. Loerch

A very pleasant welcome was given Lieut. and Mrs. Charles D. Swanner, who have returned from a brief honeymoon spent at Long Beach. Guests to the number of twenty gathered last night at the home of Dr. K. A. Loerch, father of the bride, on Cypress avenue, and showered the popular bride and groom with hearty congratulations.

The home was made attractive with clusters of beautiful hydrangeas and after a social time, the lawn was lighted up and the grafton furnished music for dancing, which filled up the remainder of the evening.

During the evening the hosts served the company with delicious ice cream and cake.

Lieut. Swanner's furlough expires Monday and until then he and Mrs. Swanner will be guests at the home of the groom's father, John Swanner.

The guests included the members of the cast of "The Green Stockings," the charming play given by the seniors of the high school when the pretty bride graduated and in which she took the leading part.

Those participating were Misses Isabel Jayne, Margaret Flagg, Irene Swanner, Eleanor Sturgon, Kathleen Trago, Esther Loerch, Stella Anderson, Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Benedict, Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Trago, Mr. and Mrs. Tom Willits; Messrs. Charles McClain, John Ball, John Swanner, Ray Keeney, Gordon House, Eugene Trago, Alfred Loerch.

—O—
Country Club Card Party

The Country Club will give a card party this evening and owing to the warm weather and the lovely moonlight night, a large crowd is looked for. An evening at the Country Club at this time of the year is a delightful treat.

Next Tuesday evening there will be a dancing party at the club.

EMBROIDERY CLUB

Mrs. Frank Browne of Walnut Street Hostess to Members Yesterday Afternoon

Are you wondering how you can use that left-over fish, Madame Housewife? Here is one suggestion made by the U. S. Department of Agriculture:

Scalloped Fish and Hominy
Place in a baking dish alternate layers of boiled or steamed hominy (hulled corn) seasoned to taste, and minced fish with thickened milk sauce. Have a layer of fish on top and sprinkle over it bread crumbs. Place in oven to heat thoroughly and brown the top.

Rice, macaroni or potatoes may be used in this recipe in the place of hominy.

Mrs. Frank S. Browne of East Walnut street was the genial hostess yesterday afternoon to the Progressive Embroidery club, the afternoon being pleasantly passed, in spite of the warm weather.

Busy fingers were busily engaged with dainty needlework and happy chat was carried on by the friendly circle.

Dahlias were the house decoration and late in the afternoon appreciated refreshments of ice cream and cake were served by the hostess.

Mmes. G. Shoobridge, T. Carnahan, C. Harlan, H. Sawday, C. E. Thompson, Hoffman, H. Cole, F. W. Winslow, S. Hoffman and Miss Olive Brown were the members present, and Miss Alice Stoddard of Hollywood was the guest of the club.

Newspaper SerialWASHINGTON, July 27.—How an untrammeled and uncensored press is used by the United States government for the general dissemination of information it wants the people to get—this is the lesson European chancellories may learn from the forthcoming publication in newspaper serial form, of Ambassador Gerard's "Four Years in Germany."In place of the "green books" and "blue books" and "red books" and
"yellow books" which are issued by the European governments, containing ponderous explanations, in the stilted language of diplomacy why certain actions were taken, the American government is telling its people.Tradition ruled in the case of the selection of Gerard as Ambassador to Berlin, that tradition being thatInfants—Mothers shrewdness and brains should be the criterion, rather than large means. Gerard saw the submarines all right. His memoirs may stagger even Berlin. Four years before war, he began to see the game that was being played. While protestations of peace and amity were being made toward the United States, he heard the swagger of the Prussian officers, and felt their contempt toward him as being a free man and of a free people. When Europe blazed with war, Germany still tried to hold the United States at peace. She needed this country then. The plan was to hold us as neutral, to prevent us from preparation for war, to preach the doctrine of pacifism and unpreparedness, on our side of the water—and all the time to prepare to spring at our throats, just as soon as Europe should be subjugated. A rich United States, to pay the debts of beggared Europe, such was the Prussian program.

Only in America would it be possible for such a document to be printed, as a serial, in daily newspapers. Only American papers would be willing to pay the price.

The Los Angeles Examiner has secured the exclusive right for publication of Gerard's story in the Southwest, and it will start the serial Sunday, August 5.

CHILDREN ARE HOSTS
AT PLEASANT PARTY

Jeannette and Kenneth Crawford, little daughter and son of Mr. and Mrs. Byron Crawford, celebrated their birthdays last Monday afternoon by inviting all their small neighbors to a delightful party. The home was decorated in a pretty color scheme of pink and white. A series of enjoyable games passed the happy time. Mrs. Crawford was assisted by Mrs. L. E. Allen and Mrs. O. A. Leihy in making the afternoon a delightful one for the children and in serving delicious pink and white ice cream and cake. Those present were Helen and Elizabeth Smith, Kathleen and Lorna Allen, Marian and Eleanor Leihy, Frances Bowman, Frances Parks, Tom Macomber, Kenneth, Dudley and William Crawford and Kenneth Hughes.

John Stuart Mill said that one man with a belief was equal to a hundred with only interests.

Room at Schoolhouse Admirably Fitted for Sewing and Cutting Out

The club meetings for the week were all just for Red Cross work.

The Tustin women in general were at the schoolhouse on Monday and busied themselves all day in sewing. The sewing room, just completed in the new arrangements made by the janitor, Mr. Overton, had everything handy and convenient. The new shelving for materials and tables for cutting out are much appreciated.

The Tustin Household Economics Section held an extra summer meeting Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Hugh Plum for special Red Cross work. The afternoon was spent in hemming towels.

Freckle - Face

Sun and Wind Bring Out Ugly Spots;
How to Remove Easily

Here's a chance, Miss Freckle-face, to try a remedy for freckles with the guarantee of a reliable dealer that it will not cost you a penny unless it removes the freckles; while if it does give a clear complexion the expense is trifling.

Simply get an ounce of ointment—double strength—from any druggist and a few applications should show you how easy it is to rid yourself of the homely freckles and get a beautiful complexion. Rarely is more than one ounce needed for the worst case.

Be sure to ask the druggist for the double strength ointment as this is the prescription sold under guarantee of money back if it fails to remove freckles.—Advertisement.

MOTOR VEHICLE HEAD DIRECTIONS HOW TO FIX HEADLIGHTS

How to Determine Whether Or Not Glare Is Illegal
Is Outlined

Under instructions issued by H. A. French, superintendent of the Motor Vehicle Department of California, none need have any doubt as to whether or not his automobile lights are placed in accordance with the law, which goes into effect today.

A circular issued by French follows:

New Headlight Law

That portion of the amendment to the Motor Vehicle Act which applies to headlights will go into effect on July 27, 1917, and reads as follows:

At the times, and under the conditions in this section hereinbefore specified the headlights of all motor vehicles upon the highway shall give sufficient light to reveal a person, vehicle or substantial object on the road directly ahead of such motor vehicle for a distance of at least one hundred fifty feet, and shall also give sufficient side illumination to reveal any person, vehicle or substantial object ten feet to the side of said motor vehicle at a point ten feet ahead of the lamps; provided, however, that such headlights shall be so constructed or arranged that no portion of the beam of reflected light when measured seventy-five feet or more ahead of said lamps shall rise or shall be capable of being raised from the driver's seat to more than forty-two inches above the level surface on which the vehicle stands ahead of such vehicle; provided, further, that the term "headlight" as used herein, shall denote any light, irrespective of its location upon the motor vehicle, the rays of which are projected forward, except sidelights of not to exceed four candlepower, and that the term "beam of reflected light," as used herein, shall denote the approximately parallel focalized rays gathered and projected by a reflector, lens or other device; and provided, further, anything herein to the contrary notwithstanding, that where there is reflected light within the lateral boundaries of the public highway within any incorporated city, town or city and county, to reveal all persons, vehicles or substantial objects within said boundaries for a distance of one hundred fifty feet, no light shall be required to be displayed on any vehicle while the same is not in operation, providing that the wheels of such standing vehicle nearest the sidewalk are located within six inches of such sidewalk.

To ascertain when a light is 42 inches from the ground at a distance of 75 feet in front of the car, the following instructions are given:

(a) Have the light focused so that the reflected rays will be condensed in solid volume as much as possible, and so as to eliminate stray rays as far as possible. To focus a light, place the car in front of a building or any perpendicular flat surface of sufficient size at a distance of ten or fifteen feet and by adjusting the bulb backward or forward reduce the area of light as much as possible, and make the light from both lamps as nearly uniform as possible. This is the most difficult of the three things necessary to overcome objectionable glare.

(b) Place the machine on the level and measure a distance of 75 feet to the front.

(c) Make a mark on a board, broom handle or on the coat of an individual 42 inches from the ground and see that the upper circumference of the solid volume of reflected light does not strike above that mark at 75 feet in front of the light. Police officers and others may easily determine the distance from the ground by noting a certain button, pocket, lapel, or any other distance-mark on their wearing apparel. By stepping in front of the machine on the level at a distance approximately 75 feet they may easily determine whether the lights are properly deflected.

There are some reflectors that because of their improper construction (being either too flat or too deep) would make it impossible to secure a condensation of the main rays. In such cases different reflectors will have to be secured.

WAR CAUSES SCARCITY OF SMALL GREENBACKS

(By United Press)

WASHINGTON, July 27.—An unusual and acute scarcity of one, two and five dollar bills confronts the Treasury Department. Multiplication of the government's pay roll and excessive industrial activity to fill war contracts are responsible.

To meet the emergency the Treasury is restricting the allowance of small notes to banks to the number of "small" bills brought in for exchange.

Previous custom was to let the banks have small notes in exchange for notes of larger denomination.

Blots are doomed. The new amendments require desk ink wells to be fastened so as not to spill.

Dirt and disorderly dressing are barred from the schoolroom. Teachers are required to send dirty or slovenly dressed children home or else prepare themselves before entering the classroom. It is provided that every school must furnish proper dressing room facilities.

One provision will be hailed with frowns by teachers. This requires that in the smaller schools, where services of a janitor cannot be secured, the teachers must act as janitors.

Flags and flagpoles must be provided by every school board, and flags must be kept flying during the school sessions. Pupils must be taught to respect and revere the emblem at all times.

The amendments also require that pure water, in proper, sanitary containers, must be provided for the pupils.

RETIREMENT SALARIES
GRANTED TO TEACHERS

SACRAMENTO, July 27.—Teachers' retirement salaries at $500 a year have been granted by the State Board of Education to Albert C. Barker, Mrs. Marion Rainey and Ette L. Thompson of Oakland; Ella Chase and Jennie Fischer of San Francisco; Elizabeth J. Gibson and Ada M. Laughlin of Los Angeles; Mrs. Hattie F. Gilbert and Pose A. Haskins of Petaluma; Leonora J. Brownell of Capitol; S. H. Butterfield of Burbank; L. L. Evans of Ripon; Henry C. Hampton of Bishop; Zoe C. Herrick of Redlands; Isabel Liscos of El Cajon; Ida M. Love and George S. Wells of San Jose; George W. Moore of Colusa; Charles J. Walker of Fresno.

Teachers are required to supervise the conduct and direct the play of the children in all cases where special playground supervision is not provided.

School yards and properties must be kept in a neat and proper condition, and examined daily by a teacher.

CAL. SCHOOL WORK SCOPE BROADENED

SACRAMENTO, July 27.—Amendments to the rules and regulations for California schools, broadening the scope of school room work, providing for supervised play in all schools and shortening the hours of actual work, have been adopted by the state board of education.

Daily school sessions are limited to four hours, exclusive of intermissions, but in schools where transportation is provided for the pupils, they may be instructed in handicraft or kept active upon the playground until the vehicles arrive.

Teachers are required to supervise the conduct and direct the play of the children in all cases where special playground supervision is not provided.

School yards and properties must be kept in a neat and proper condition, and examined daily by a teacher.

Blots are doomed. The new amendments require desk ink wells to be fastened so as not to spill.

WINTERSBURG
NEWS BUDGET

WINTERSBURG, July 26.—Phil McClinton's new modern cow barn is now completed with the exception of laying the concrete floors.

The hay loft is being filled with alfalfa hay this week; the track and carrier of which is one of the conveniences that has been installed, being used in unloading.

J. Toogood and family spent Sunday at Huntington Beach, attending camp-meeting.

The Penhall family were also in attendance at some of the Sunday services.

Miss Helen Auntern left Monday morning for Santa Ana, after a week's visit with old friends here. After the completion of her visit in Santa Ana she will spend some time at Tustin and from there leave for Pacific Grove where she will make her home with her sister, Mrs. Millar, and family.

Mr. John Patterson left Tuesday evening for a week's visit in Los Angeles.

Willis Werner was in Los Angeles

Wednesday.

Miss Ethelyn Tucker, who has been a visitor at the home of her grandmother, Mrs. B. A. Hazard, left on Wednesday of this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Abe Himmelschein and little daughter Merritt and Rose Esther of Los Angeles, were Sunday visitors at the Phil McClinton home.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Wright, who have been in failing health for some months, but able to be up and about a part of the time, are now both quite ill.

Mr. Wright has been much worse for the past two weeks and Mrs. Wright took her bed last Saturday. Their daughter, Mrs. Canady of Huntington Beach, has spent most of the time since at home assisting Miss Viola in caring for them.

The ten-inch well bored for Morris Terry by the Borden well boring outfit of Artesia, was finished Friday of last week. It was sunk to the depth of 160 feet to a bed of coarse sand, slightly mixed with clay. A cement bottom was put in to insure against possible cave-ins. A thirty-eight foot strata of gravel was encountered previously and this they think will insure a good pumping well.

The outfit was moved away Wednesday morning.

Mr. Terry has purchased a pump from J. P. Weinschenk and with the friends and neighbors in the east, a large engine purchased from him. There were three sons, one daughter, some time ago will soon have water two grandsons, two great grandsons,

LOS ANGELES PRODUCE MARKET

The first Bartlett pears of the season are now in the market and are being offered the trade at $1.65 per lug or $2.25 a packed box. The California crop of this popular fruit is reported as being an average one, and the excessive hot spell of a month ago evidently did no damage. Nectarines are more plentiful and prices have in consequence been lowered to $1.85 and $1.70 a lug. Cantaloupes are easier, due to the advent of the local crop. Imperial Valley shipments have ceased to all intents and purposes as far as this city is concerned.

MAIL DELIVERY DELAYED BY SMASH ON HIGHWAY

Auto Strikes Buggy of J. W. Templeton, Carrier On R. D. 7

Distribution of Uncle Sam's mail to residents on Rural Route 7 was delayed for a short time yesterday through the carelessness of an auto driver who permitted his car to smash into the horse-drawn mail wagon driven by J. W. Templeton. The rear wheel of the buggy was crushed in and a portion of the mail was scattered on the ground. Templeton was not unseated and the auto was not damaged.

Templeton was nearing the end of his route when the accident occurred, on the state highway about a mile south of the Culver corner. Squire C.

Templeton had to secure another buggy with which to complete his route.

GEARS SHIFTED WITH FOOT BY 1-ARMED MAN

Homer L. Heath, one-armed athlete of the University of Michigan, now manager of the University of Michigan Union, is called on to do a good deal of driving in that capacity. He uses a Liberty and shifts gears with his foot, starting the car in second gear and then shifting to high speed.

OLD-TIME SPIRIT AT M. E. MEETING

HUNTINGTON BEACH, July 27.—Interest is growing daily in the big camp meetings being held by the Methodists of Southern California on the camp grounds in this city. Many have remarked that the meetings carry them back twenty-five or thirty years, as the old-time spirit permeates the air and reminds them of the days that have drifted into the past.

The Tent City Company is caring for all that have applied for accommodations, at reasonable rates, and the indications are that there will be room for all who desire to attend these meetings, which continue for two weeks. There is a cafeteria on the grounds.

800 NEW LAWS COVERING WIDE RANGE ARE IN EFFECT TODAY

Bills Passed By 1917 Legislature and Signed By Governor Operative

SACRAMENTO, July 27.—The death knell of the common drinking cup and common towel in public places was sounded today, when the Jones bills, along with some 800 others passed by the 1917 legislature and signed by the governor, became effective.

Highly important among the big lot of new laws are the marketing acts—one broadening the powers of the market director along the lines he has been following and the other empowering him to regulate the buying and selling of fish.

Also there is the law creating the state land colonization board to carry out a colonization plan backed by the state; the law providing for the regulation, supervision and licensing of real estate brokers, agents, salesmen and solicitors; the act regulating the kelp industry which has reached such tremendous proportions in the vicinity of San Diego and changes in the motor vehicle act.

Realty Board Ready

Freeman H. Bloodgood, the new real estate commissioner, has already opened offices in the capital and will be prepared to carry out the law right off the bat. Most important of the changes in the motor vehicle laws is the "headlight" provision. This provides that headlights of motor vehicles shall give sufficient light to reveal any person, vehicle or substantial object on the road for a distance of at least 50 feet ahead of the machine; sufficient side illumination to reveal any person, vehicle or object ten feet ahead of the lamps and that the headlights be so constructed or arranged that no portion of the beam or reflected light when measured 75 feet or more ahead of the lamps, shall rise or be capable of being raised from the driver's seat to more than 42 inches above the level surface on which the vehicle stands, ahead of such vehicle.

Other important laws effective today are:

Empowering state board of health to examine sources from which shellfish are taken.

Providing for inspection of bathing places.

Examination of plumbers.

Periodical inspection of elevators operated in places of employment.

Highway Law

Authorizing any county to permit construction of highway or boulevard over highways within its limits connecting with main highways of adjoining county.

Whole family protection for members of fraternal societies.

Prohibiting employers from interfering with employees purchasing in open market any property title or ownership.

Regulating possession and carrying of firearms.

Requiring the labeling of prison-made goods.

Regulation of sale of eggs which have been in transit more than 31 days.

Prevention of importation or transportation through the state of insects injurious to crops.

Providing protection of beneficiaries of workmen's compensation insurance policies.

Inspection of steam boilers.

State meat inspection.

Continuation of social insurance investigation.

Establishment of nautical school at port of San Francisco.

Establishment of state nursery, preparatory to lining highways of state with trees.

Supervision of "industrial loan" companies.

Free textbooks for high school pupils to be furnished by districts if desired until 1920 when act becomes compulsory.

Pure Milk Bill

New pure milk and milk products bill, extending and strengthening old law.

Re-enacting of workmen's compensation act, making law stronger.

Standard fruit packs.

Conveying lands for army camp in San Diego.

Creation of cattle protection board.

Making women eligible for jury service by having the law read "persons" instead of "men."

Providing establishment of guarantee funds by fire insurance companies.

Extension of vocational training in schools.

State bureau of criminal identification and investigation.

Establishing institution in Southern California for feeble minded and epileptic persons.

WESTMINSTER

GO PRESENT AT ANNIVERSARY OF WEDDING

WESTMINSTER, July 26.—Over sixty guests accepted the gracious hospitality of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Edwards at their beautiful home on Monday afternoon between the hours of two and six, where they held a reception commemorating the twenty-fifth anniversary of their wedded life.

Many and sincere were the good wishes showered upon this popular couple by these friends, the most of whose friendliness dated back even further than the quarter century mark which the gathering honored.

The lovely rooms were converted into a bower of beauty by festoons of white crepe paper and silver bells commingling with large bouquets of fragrant pink carnations and lacy ferns.

Mrs. Edwards, appearing decidedly youthful for a bride of twenty-five years, wore a lovely dress of dainty embroidered voile and carried a beautiful bouquets of pink rose buds.

Pleasant conversation, which among so many friends of long standing naturally proved unusually interesting, made the hours pass all too swiftly, and the leave taking hour arrived before it seemed possible to the happy party.

Delectable refreshments of ice cream and cake were served by the hostess, assisted by the young girls present. The large beautiful wedding cake of pure white, with the dates, "1892 and 1917" linked in the center with a sea-shell border, was cut by Mrs. Edwards. Each guest as served had pinned upon them a tiny silver bell, a souvenir of the interesting occasion.

A beautiful array of silver was presented Mr. and Mrs. Edwards by their guests, among the pieces being one dozen knives and forks and one-half dozen bouillon spoons all in Community silver, a silver butter dish, bread plate, cake basket, meat fork, potato fork, berry spoon, gravy ladle, gravy boat, pie knife and caserole.

Greatly appreciated are these appropriate remembrances by the honorees, together with the hearty good wishes expressed for their continued journey on to the half century mark.

An unusual feature of the memorable affair is the fact that the present home is situated on the same place, the house being only a few steps from the other one to which Mrs. Edwards came as a bride from her girlhood home, which is situated just across the street.

The guests of the occasion, as taken from the guest book, which is a highly-prized memento of the occasion, were:
